BIG REDUCTION IN TAX LEVIES

County and Schools are Asking About $16,000 Less Than Last Year for Expenses

CITY LEVY NOT YET MADE

Taxes Should be Considerably Lighter Next Year than they Have Been

The county commissioners met yesterday and made the annual levy. They called for $10,000 for county revenues and $10,000 for bond interest fund, also ½ mill for poor fund, and 1 mill each for roads and bridges and county school funds. The county revenue levy is just half what it was last year, it having then been $20,000. This with the reduction of about $6,000 in the amount levied for school taxes makes a reduction of $16,000 in the taxes to be paid by Brainerd and Crow Wing county. At least half the reduction in the county taxes will fall to Brainerd's lot so that she will benefit about $10,000 or $11,000 by the saving.

The city has not as yet made its levy. Last year it made a reduction of 2 mills and yet paid off about $20,000 floating indebtedness, and it is expected that there will be an additional reduction this year. They city levy will be made by the new council, to be elected next month.

Thomas Sheridan, of New York City, who will visit here for some time. They also brought with them a handsome bird said to be very rare. Its forefathers and mothers were taken from a nest in the Alleghany mountains in Pennsylvania about 50 years ago, and the breed has been confined to that neighborhood ever since.

IN INTERESTS OF PEOPLE

Statement of Candidate for Congress About Position Regarding Appointments

C. A. Lindbergh, the republican nominee for congress in this district, is receiving many inquiries as to his position regarding federal appointments that will, within a few months, be under his official consideration. Many of the inquiries are concerning definite cases, and generally are regarding postmasters, and are from friends of present incumbents, as well as from those who desire changes. Mr. Lindbergh made his position quite plain on that matter during the campaign, and it evidently met with popular approval, says the Little Falls Transcript.

In personally replying to these inquiries Mr. Lindbergh makes the following statement, which he wishes given the widest publicity:

"I stated my position on the subject in my pamphlet issued in August. The offices belonging to the people and the officials should serve the people. If I am elected I will disturb no one until there is a demand by the people. A congressman must serve all classes. He is simply the people's servant and has no right to personal control of patronage beyond their interests. No one opposed me that did not have a right to do so and I could not be worthy of any person's support if I entertained any feeling of resentment on that account. I certainly am no one's enemy and do not know of any one that is my enemy."

Advice to Housewives.

Death of Two at Ft. Ripley.

Thomas Robert Beaumont, aged 60 years, a resident of Fort Ripley, was found dead Saturday night at about 7 o'clock on the corner of Broadway and Second Street, Little Falls, death being due to heart failure. Mr. Beaumont had been in the city Saturday on business and had delivered an address at the meeting of the Farmer's Exchange Saturday afternoon and is supposed to have been on the point of leaving for home when the fatal stroke ended his life. Deceased had been a resident of Ft. Ripley about three years, coming here from Iowa, and was the owner of a 200 acre farm.—Transcript.

Fred Hovey, an old and respected resident of Ripley, passed away at his home in that town Monday afternoon of Bright's disease, aged 57 years. Mr. Hovey had been a resident of the county for many years and was well known and respected by all. Of late he has been in the mail service on route 1 from Ft. Ripley. The deceased was a member in good standing of the A. O. U. W. and the funeral will be under the auspices of that lodge. Mr. Hovey leaves to mourn his loss a wife and three grown children, two sons, Howard and Dan Hovey, and one daughter, Mrs. J. Gauthier, of the city. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon from the M. E. church at 1:30 o'clock.—Transcript.

PROMINENT MEN IN CITY TODAY

Party on Trip over Northern Pacific and Minnesota & International.

SENATOR CLAPP IS IN CHARGE

Were Surprised at Resources and Development of this Part of the State.

Unheralded by brass bands or advance announcements the party of Twin City business men and state representatives and senators who left the cities Monday to visit the Big Falls country, arrived in Brainerd this afternoon from the north. The party was under the auspices of U. S. Senator Moses E. Clapp and Vice President Hannaford, of the Northern Pacific railroad company. The party has President Elliott's car, the Yellowstone, and the Pullman sleeper, Snohomish, for its accommodation and is enjoying the trip immensely, so the members say. It was an eye opener to many of the gentlemen who were making their first trip into what was once the wilds of Minnesota. They all go back ardent advocates of state drainage and the development of the agricultural resources of Northern Minnesota.

While their arrival was unheralded the business men turned out and greeted them cordially and did their utmost to make their stay pleasant.

Among the party were the following well known gentlemen: U. S. Senator Moses E. Clapp; Hon. Peter E. Hanson, secretary of state; W. H. Hannaford, first vice president of the Northern Pacific Railway company; Congressman Stevens, of the Fourth district; Secretary Besk, of the St. Paul Manufacturers and Jobbers Association; Secretary Carl Wallace, of the Minneapolis Commercial club; Rev. Mr. Gordon, of Gordon & Ferguson, of Gordon hat fame; Hon. A. M. Hayes, of Hastings, former representative and candidate for state senator; Hon. Ole Peterson, representative from Nicollet county; Hon. Frank Claug, former speaker of the Minnesota house and now a candidate for the senate; Hon. John F. Landeen, representative 58th district; Land Commissioner Cooper, of the Northern Pacific railway company; Mr. Comstock, of Duluth; Secretary Eva, of the Duluth Commercial club; Hon. B. F. Nelson, of Hennepin county; Secretary Randall, of the Minnesota State Agricultural association; "Pudge" Hellefing, of the North Star Shoe company; Mr. Griggs, of Griggs, Cooper & Co.; Geo. Partridge, of Wyman, Partridge & Co.; Fred R. Salisbury, Minneapolis; John Abercrombie, state drainage engineer; J. A. Costello, industrial agent of the Northern Pacific; Andrew Boss, from the State school of Agriculture; W. G. Nye, of Minneapolis, and others.

W. H. Strachan and W. H. Gemmell, of the Minnesota & International were with the party up to the time they reached here and the latter gentleman accompanied the party to the twin cities.

Mr. Ralph, state drainage engineer, and J. Adam Beds had been with the party but left before they reached Brainerd.

Mr. Landeen, who is a practical farmer, states that the party was surprised at the quality of the soil found and he considers it much better than the averages in the south part of the state. He stated that he voiced the sentiments of the entire party when he declared that state drainage should be pushed as rapidly as possible and immigration encouraged to settle up the country.

Henry E. Jones, of Tampa, Fla., writes: "I can thank God for my present health due to Foley's Kidney Cure. I tried doctors and all kinds of kidney cures, but nothing done me much good until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back or shoulders. I am 62 years old, and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney cure." H. P. Dunn & Co. mwf

A GLIMPSE AT DEERWOOD

Something of Her Surroundings and Brief Mention of her
Business Men

ABOUT THE CUYUNA RANGE A Brief Review of the Discovery and Development of The Iron Properties.

The present pretty town of Deerwood and the clusters of hand-some summer homes surrounding the beautiful Serpent and Reno lakes had its inception when Cuyler Adams, then a civil engineer in the employ of the Northern Pacific railroad company became attracted by the beauty of the spot in the early days of the road. He at once purchased a large tract of land and organized the Deerwood Improvement company and platted the town.

The Town of Deerwood

The town of Deerwood as a business center has always enjoyed a steady property, and while it has never enjoyed a boom it has made a good growth, especially the last year or so. It now

The lots around Reno lake were also platted and a handsome cluster of summer homes has grown up around that beautiful little body of water. There have also been a large number of hand-some summer homes erected on the shores of Serpent lake, and Deerwood as a summer resort has been known nearly from one end of the United States to the other. Every year sees gathered there men from Kansas City, dise store. It is his expectation to give it especial private quarters next spring. H. J. Hage, General Merchandise. H. J. Hage came to Deerwood in the year 1883 to act as agent for the Northern Pacific railway company. He was agent for eight years and then left the service of the road to embark in the general merchandise business. He started in with a very small store room in 1896 and has expanded as his business increased. He now occupies a building 46 by 100, two stories and basement, besides having a good sized lumber yard, lime and cement warehouse, etc., in addition. The first story is occupied by his stock of general merchandise, including flour and feed and hardware. In the second story will be found his stock of furniture and house furnishings. Mr. Hage has built up his business by fair dealing and has the confidence of the people to an unusual extent. He employs a force of four to six people besides himself to handle the trade including handling of farm produce.

O. C. Coffin.

O. C. Coffin is one of the old timers in Deerwood, having come to the place in 1873 with his parents. He began business there in 1898, and in 1903 he took in E. A. Wasserzieher as a partner. Mr. Wasserzieher was connected with the business until 1905, when Mr. Coffin bought him out and he has conducted the business alone since then. He conducts a general merchandise business and has been, for the past seven years, clerk of the town of Deerwood. The Odd Fellows occupy the second story of Mr. Coffin's store building for lodge purposes.

C. E. Benson.

C. E. Benson, groceries, meats and repair shop, has been in business nearly three years and enjoys a good patronage.

Tourists Lodge.

Tourist Lodge, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. R. Archibald, is also well known and well patronized. It is located on the shores of Serpent lake and with its unique log cabin and excellent boating facilities is always well filled during the season.

The Cuyuna Range

No writeup of Deerwood would be complete without a mention of the discovery and development of the Cuyuna range. Cuyler Adams is the father of the Cuyuna range as well as the founder of Deerwood. Mr. Adams, while running the lines of the lands purchased by him at and around Deerwood found his compass at fault, the magnetic needle performing strange antics. He began a series of investigations which covered a long series of years and culminated in his securing a drill and commencing work in earnest in 1903. In the last three years a large amount of work has been done on the range and today there are about 40 drills at work in Crow Wing and Aitkin counties as the result of the investigations of Mr. Adams. The principal investors on the range have been the United States Steel Corporation, the Northern Pacific Railway company, and other smaller concerns. One shaft has been sunk and work was begun on another, but was suspended on account of water. The developments are said by those who should know to be delayed awaiting the com-

Mr. Benson is an expert tinsmith and bicycle repair man and his own time is largely taken up with that work while efficient clerks look after the store.

The Fair.

The Fair store, opened a couple of months ago by E. A. Wasserzieher, is enjoying a good patronage. In this store is situated the local telephone exchange. Mr. Wasserzieher carries a stock of fancy groceries, notions and Deerwood souvenirs.

Carlson Bros.

Carlson Bros., confectionery, and photographic supplies, is another new firm that is winning a good patronage. The boys are kept busy, especially evenings, in waiting on their trade and attending to their pool table. They carry a large line of Deerwood souvenir photos.

Carlson & Oberg.

Carlson & Oberg, proprietors of the Deerwood Land Company enjoy a good real estate business and have besides several houses and their business building. They are booming Deerwood all the time.

Frisbee Hotel.

The only commercial hotel in Deerwood is the Hotel Frisbee, conducted by E. A. Frisbee, who runs a $2 a day house that compares well with any in towns of its size in Minnesota. It is centrally located, looking over Lake Reno and is a favorite with resorters wishing to spend only a day or two in Deerwood.

The Adams.

Chas. Adams conducts one of the best known tourist homes in this section. Mr. Adams has, in his commodious house and outlying cottages, accommodations for about fifty people. The popularity of the place is testified by

MOB AFTER A NEGRO

SPECIAL OFFICER OF THE MOBILE AND OHIO RAILROAD KILLED IN FIGHT AT JAIL.

AN ALDERMAN IS WOUNDED

CHAIRMAN OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF MOBILE IS SHOT DURING THE BATTLE.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 3.—Roy Hoyle, a special officer of the Mobile and Ohio railroad, and one of the most widely known and best liked men in this vicinity, was fatally shot and Alderman Sidney Lyons, chairman of the city council of Mobile, was slightly wounded in the hand during a fight at the county jail between deputy sheriffs and a crowd of men who were determined to capture Dick Robinson, a young negro. The mob is still hunting the negro and threatens to lynch him if captured. The negro, who is only seventeen years of age, attacked Ruth, the twelve-year-old daughter of Blount Sassaman. The girl was passing a secluded spot not far from her home, when she was attacked. Later, she was found lying unconscious by the roadside and was taken to her home. Detectives were placed on the track of the negro and within three hours he was captured. He was taken before the girl, who at once identified him. Deputy Sheriff Fatch, knowing that the negro's life would be taken by a mob if he brought him into this city, caused him to be conveyed to a station several miles up the Mobile and Ohio railroad. He was not taken to the jail at all, and was at least eight miles from the city when the mob which determined to lynch him, approached the building. There have been several assaults upon white women within the past few weeks and the news of this latest outrage caused intense excitement. Early in the evening crowds gathered in the downtown streets. The crowd was harangued by several speakers who urged them to take the life of the negro if he could be found and in a short time the entire crowd was on the march for the jail.

Smashed the Jail Door.

Sheriff Powers met the leaders of the mob and informed them that the man they were seeking was not in the jail and never had been brought there. He offered to let anybody whom he personally knew pass through the jail to satisfy the crowd of the truth of his statement. About forty men walked through the corridors, some of them returning and assuring the members of the mob that the man was not there. While several men, including Hoyle and Lyons, were still in the jail, a portion of the crowd seized a telephone pole that had been blown down in the recent storm and smashed it in the jail door and almost instantly a shot came from a revolver in the hands of a man standing in the gate. At once the members of the mob commenced a fusillade. Not more than a dozen men took part in the firing and as the shots rang out there was a stampede on the part of the crowd for shelter. The mob was widely scattered and in a few seconds Alderman Lyons, who had been on the inside of the jail, came out and, holding up his hand, from which the blood was streaming, announced that he had been shot and that Hoyle had received a bullet through the left lung. The fact that Hoyle had been shot while looking through the jail in order to ascertain if the negro was there, took all the fight out of the mob and for the most part it dispersed quietly.

The crowd later received information that Robinson had been taken from the city to Eight Mile Point, on the Mobile and Ohio railroad, where he was to be placed upon the train and carried still further. As soon as this was known, 300 men boarded a passenger train with the expressed intention of lynching the negro if they could get him. The mob later returned to this city, being unable to find the negro.
